FRESH TROUBLE FOR BRITAIN

TRIBAL REVOLTS GROWING AND INSURGENTS REINFORCED.

Ties of Blood and Religion Urged by Fanatics to Cause Defection of Native Militia.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

SIMLA, Sept. 1.—Further tribal defections are reported as taking place.
The leaders of the Shamozais and Si-larzais have joined the insurgents with all their followers. This has augmented the force now in the Khyber Pass, ready to resist the British, to fully four thousand.

The Arkhand of Swatis is a disciple of the notorious Mad Mullah of Haddah who has been at the bottom of so much trouble recently. The Arkhand had previously opposed the British rule and is now inciting the Swatis to open hostilities.

The Mullah has announced his intention of attacking the Khan of Dir, because the latter is friendly to the British. Large numbers of tribesmen from Afghanistan are flocking to the Mul-lah's standard.

Other signs of trouble in this region is the flight into the territory of the Ameer of Afghanistan of two important chiefs who are at the head of the Bungalozai and Sehri tribes. In addition large bodies of people from the Pishin villages are crossing the border.

Confidential military reports say the Beloochi militia are untrustworthy and there is urgent need of replacing them at once with troops who are reliable.

There have been many sunstrokes among the members of the different British columns operating against the enemy.

The press of India is charging that the empire is wrapped up in red tape and the government has bungled the mobilization and transport of troops.
It further says that a day has been fixed for the tribes to attack simultaneously.

Tribesmen Sack Gazarbund.

SIMLA, Sept. 1.—The little town of Gazarbund in Beluchistan has been sacked by rebellious tribesmen. The native garrison and a number of travellers were murdered. The robber tribesmen are being pursued by British cavalry. Colonel Gordon is at the head of the relief column which has forced Kohat Pass and reached Kohat. Heavy fighting is expected to take place at Ublan.

Three Storms in on Night.

OXFORD, N. C., Aug. 31.—Three severe storms occurred here Monday night, at intervals through the night.
The thunder and lightning were terrific. At 12 o'clock a remarkably hard wind and hail storm set in, during which chimneys were blown down and trees badly broken. Rain poured down in volumes, thus replenishing the well and streams which were very low before the storm. The tobacco factories re-opened yesterday, giving employment to many hands.

Approve St. Louis Conference.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 1.—The Central Labor Council here, composed of all the representatives of labor unions in this city, adopted resolutions approving the course of the St. Louis Conference in setting aside the earnings of Sept. 3, for the assistance of the strikers.

Frosts in Michigan.

DETROIT, Aug. 31.—Heavy frosts are reported from the northern part of the state last night did much damage to vegetation. The remainder of the standing crops are ruined.

They Whipped Mormon Elders.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

RIDGEWAY, S. C., Sept. 1.—Twenty-four residents of Fairfield county, charged with whipping and driving out Mormon elders and their converts, have been bound over to court for trial.

STRIKERS TOLD TO VACATE.

Miners Are Working in the Jellico District Today.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 1.—The miners are working in the Jellico district today, notwithstanding the operators and leaders of the miners have been unable to arrive at any agreement.

The miners occupying the company's houses and refusing to work have been given notice to vacate immediately. This plan is more readily effective in mines on the Tennessee side than on the Kentucky side of the dividing line of the states. Thirty days notice is required in Kentucky.

Local operators are confident that national laborers will be greatly surprised at the large number of union men who will be working in a few days.

THE WAVE FOLLOWED MCKINLEY.

Withdrawal of Office Seekers Bankrupts Willard's Hotel.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 1.—Willard's Hotel, one of the historic hostelries of the national capital is in charge of a deputy United States marshall today as a result of the failure of the lessee to pay the rent when due.

President McKinley's vacation has caused many of the office seekers, who flood Washington ordinarily and make a large part of the patronage of the hotels, to straggle away. This has deprived Willard's, like many other hotels, of a considerable part of its customary revenue with the result that it has failed.

Many questions of great pith and moment have been discussed and decided in its spacious lobby.

BRODIE PAYS THE PENALTY.

NEGROES MADE THREATS BUT NO TROUBLE OCCURRED.

Crime Committed Just One Month Ago—Another Case of Assault Reported.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

HENDERSON, Sept. 1.—Brodie, the negro who assaulted the young white girl at Kittrell exactly a month ago, was hanged here today.

He was tried at a special term of court convened for the purpose by the Governor, under the new law. He was convicted in just three minutes by a jury one-third of which was composed of negroes.

The negroes of Henderson became very ugly last night in talk and demeanor. Some trouble at the hanging this morning was anticipated, but none occurred.

Another criminal assault is reported today in Franklin county, not far from the scene of Brodie's crime. Two negro boys assaulted a colored girl.

A Negro for Naval Academy.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

ANNAPOLIS, Sept. 1.—R. C. Bundy, a colored youth, hailing from Cincinnati, is undergoing examination today for admission to the Naval Academy.
It will be remembered that considerable comment was made at the time of Bundy's appointment by the Ohio congressman. The white cadets have always looked with strong disfavor upon the admission of negroes to the Academy.

Injunction Against Sunday Ball.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—Judge Neff, of the Common Pleas Court, granted a temporary injunction in the baseball case. The case was brought by several residents in the neighborhood of the ball park, who claimed that Sunday games disturbed their peace. The injunction is limited so that its operation is to cease September 20.

Farewell to Richard Croker.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A number of friends assembled this morning to bid farewell to Richard Croker, who left for Southampton, from whence he will sail for New York.

FOUND GUILTY OF ARSON.

AN INTERESTING CASE DISPOSED OF THIS MORNING.

Robert Moore and William Word are Judged Guilty of Burning Phoenix's Store.

The two negroes arrested last week for burning John J. Phoenix's big wholesale produce house the night of our big fire recently were brought before the bar of justice this morning to answer to the charges against them for the high crime of arson.

This is a serious offense, and our people have taken much interest in the case from the first. The interest was intensified when Robert Moore and William Word were arrested by Policeman Scott last week.

Solicitor Bynum was assisted in the prosecution by Zeb. V. Taylor, and they made out a strong case. The defendants were not able to procure counsel, so Judge Adams appointed W. P. Ragan to appear for Ward and John N. Staples to represent Moore.

Mrs. W. F. Whittington was the most important witness for the state.
She testified that on the night of the fire she and her daughter were standing in the door of their house, which was right near Phoenix's, watching the fire on South Elm street.

She saw two men run down the street and go into Phoenix's store. Immediately following this she saw the fire flash up and burst out of the building, and the two men jump out of the door and run.

Mrs. Whittington identified both Ward and Moore as the two men she saw run into Phoenix's store. After Mr. Scott arrested the two men she went around to the jail and picked them out from a crowd of negroes.

All the evidence was strong against the defendants, and it was no surprise when the jury rendered a verdict of guilty. Sentence has not yet been passed on them.

STILL AT LARGE.

That Horse Thief Got Away With Forty Dollars in Money.

Tatum & Taylor are still minus a fine saddle horse which a thief rode off Monday afternoon.

He has been heard from several times, though all efforts to capture him have been unavailing.

He gave his name at the stables as John Hornady. It is learned also that this is not the first time he has been guilty of riding off people's horses. His home is in Graham, where his father lives.

Once he went to a stable in Burlington and got a horse which he kept out a week. His father kept him out of trouble by paying for the horse.

Yesterday evening it was ascertained that the horse thief had been seen going in direction of Julian. Mr. Ham Tatum got on a horse and went after him, but failed to locate his man. He was informed that Hornady had been working for a man below Julian, and that he stole $40 from this gentleman while the family was at church Sunday.

A gentleman in the city this afternoon states Hornady was seen riding the horse near Randolph church yesterday, going towards Worthville. It is more than probable that he will be captured.

OPENING OF THE CITY SCHOOLS.

They Open Better Than Any Previous Year.

The graded schools opened well this morning. The weather was beautiful, and nearly six hundred children found their way to school. Superintendent Grimsley tells us that the Lindsay street school opened with 311, while the Asheboro street school opened with 240, making a total of 551, which is doing first-rate for the first day.

We did not learn the number the colored schools opened with, though one of the principals says they had a good opening.

School No. 3, which is the observation school at the Normal College, will not open until September 20th.

900 Cloakmakers Join Strike.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Nine hundred cloakmakers were today's accession to the shop strike that has been in progress for a fortnight. For three hundred of yesterday's quota of eighteen hundred the strike lasted only a single day, a settlement having been affected today.

GRAND JURY'S REPORT.

They Visit the Various County Institutions and Offices.

The grand jury of this term of court made its report and was discharged by Judge Adams yesterday afternoon.

They reported that they had visited the home for the aged and infirm and found it in excellent condition. The inmates are well fed and clothed and well cared for in every way. The farm and stock are in good condition.
There are thirty-six inmates in the home, as follows: white males, six; white females, thirteen; colored males, nine; colored females, eight. Two of the white inmates are insane—one male and one female.

The jury reported that they found the county jail well kept and the prisoners fed with plenty of good food.
There are fifty prisoners in jail—thirty-six colored men, seven colored women and seven white men. The officers in charge were commended for the faithful manner in which they are discharging their duties. They report that the jail is entirely too small, and that the building is unsafe and unfit for the proper confinement of prisoners. The foundation appears to be giving way, and the sanitary arrangement of the building makes it unhealthy.

Judge Adams ordered the clerk of the court to bring this matter before the county commissioners at their next meeting.

The county offices were visited and found to be kept in the best of condition.

The grand jury reported that they had acted on seventy-six different bills and having finished their work asked to be discharged.

Private School to Open.

We are requested to announce that Miss Jennie Gilmer will open her school on Smith street, next to Capt.
Allen's, on Monday, Sept. 6. Miss Gilmer has made a specialty of teaching small children for a number of years and is said to have been unusually successful. She will make Greensboro her home in future.

A DANGEROUS TENDENCY.

THE following from the Biblical Recorder calls attention to a latter day phase that thoughtful people can not afford to ignore:

"The tendency of the time is toward disrespect and distrust of the Government; and, to put it mildly, it is the most dangerous of all the tendencies of the time. To say that it is anarchy to apologize for lawlessness, or to say that it is anarchy to make light of government officials, or to say that it is anarchy to treat in a flippant way the actions of the officers of the law, would sound most strange in the ears of the people of the present time. We do not say it; and yet we do say that it leans toward anarchy. It teaches the rising generation a lesson that will bear the fruitage of lawlessness and rebellion."

It is an unquestionable fact that the only safeguard of a republic is a wise conservatism and a careful student of the times is bound to reach the conclusion that we are not moving in that direction.

IN THE conference of labor leaders at St. Louis every remedy from Winchester to an extra session of congress has been proposed. The great trouble with the labor leader is that he does not know what he wants himself, and consequently when we have an aggregation of them the remedies proposed are somewhat various. Ratchford's proposal that the President be asked to call an extra session of congress and that, in the event of his refusal, a universal sympathetic strike be ordered, is an example of the hair-brained methods of the labor leader in general. Such a course, so far from creating a public sentiment in favor of the strikers would inevitably alienate it. The coal operators would not be effected by it, directly, at all. Its only result would be wide spread suffering among labor men in other lines of trade.

CHICAGO is nothing if not in the very front of the heading procession. Even into the sober realm of jurisprudence she proposes to carry her progressive-ness. Asking the court and the jury to adjourn to a sausage factory to see a human body cooked in caustic potash is a novel method of getting testimony, even for Chicago. This process was suggested by the defence to clear Luet-gert, accused of wife murder. Now let the prosecution go it one better and propose to boil the jury for a few minutes just to show them how it feels and a verdict for the state will be speedy and unanimous.

ARKANSAS is evidently bent on wrestling the penitentiary from Kentucky. In a single week she has managed to roll up a lynching of eight men and five homicides in addition. Thirteen murders in one week is a pretty bad record even for Arkansas. The shooting down of the four United States deputies from ambush, is the legitimate fruit of the wholesale lynching by her citizens. What is permitted to the so-called "best citizen" cannot be denied to the half barbarous moonshiner.

THAT Franco-Russian Peace Trust is likely to be received with some suspicion in Europe. The first fruit of it will probably be a new military appropriation for the German army and additional battleships for the English navy. Germany and Russia will pull hair yet over which shall be arbiter of peace in Europe.

THE Armour packing company has received an order for several million pounds of canned beef for the Japanese army. Now low look out for a rise in the horse market.

BAD luck must have overtaken the pigeon loft in Andree's balloon. We have not had a message from him for several weeks now.

If the present rate of assassination is kept up, it is probable that other heads will lie uneasy besides those that wear a crown.

WITH today the summer oyster had best pack its trunks and leave the seashore—for deep water. September has an R in it.

GENERAL NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

The law against ticket scalping goes into effect in New York tomorrow.

Sergeant George W. McClosky has been appointed chief of detectives in New York.

A dispatch from Halifax, N. S., says the battleships Maine and Iowa will be dry docked there.

Two deputy marshals were killed and two were severely wounded by moonshiners in Pope county, Ark.

The Zionist Congress, at Basle, Switzerland, unanimously adopted a programme for re-establishing the Hebrews in Palestine.

Secretary Gage has invited architects to submit competitive designs for the public building at Norfolk, Va., according to the terms of the Tarsney law.

Secretary of the Treasury Gage and Attorney-General McKenna have promulgated regulations to insure a more rigid enforcement of the Chinese exclusion laws.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior Davis has rendered an important decision in a pension claim defining what is a valid marriage and outlining the policy to be followed by the Interior Department in a great number of pension cases.

There is a movement on foot, which is receiving favorable consideration in New York to secure from the British Board of Trade the withdrawal of the usual winter restrictions upon British vessels loading from Atlantic ports north of Baltimore.

Another alteration in section 22 of the Dingley tariff law is giving the Treasury Department great concern and has been referred to Attorney-General McKenna for construction. It apparently imposes a discriminating duty on goods brought to the United States by trans-Atlantic and trans-Pacific steamships.

Fight With Rocks and Clubs.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., August 31.—A special to the Post from Washington, Ind., says: One hundred strikers met a crowd of miners accompanied by the mine superintendent, Frank Strasser, on the way to start the mine this morning. A battle with rocks, fists and clubs took place between the men just outside the city limits, and a number were painfully injured. Superintendent Strasser's scalp was badly cut from a blow with a club and he was bruised about the body from the rocks. He, with his men, were followed to town by the angry strikers. No arrests have been made.

HOW ABOUT IT?

The Next Congressional Campaign a Topic for Discussion.

It is rumored that already Hon. Thomas Settle is picking his flint and getting things in shape for the next Congressional campaign. Some of his warm personal friends in this district are urging him to be a candidate, and he is said to look upon the scheme favorably.

Some time ago a slate was being handed around with Judge Spencer B. Adams, of Caswell county, for Congressman; Solicitor Bynum for judge, and J. S. Merritt, of Person county, for solicitor.

But this slate has been smashed and the indomitable Settle appears upon the scene. Of course this is all talk, for the next campaign is a long time off, but it cannot be denied that, in Republican ranks, Settle is a mighty giant.

DEPOSED BY GORDON.

The Belooch Tribes Have Crossed the Afghan Frontier.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

SIMLA, Aug. 31.—The forces who were in possession of Kapaas have been deposed by Col. Gordon, who started at the head of the column, August 29th, to relieve and reinforce the British garrisons in the Salmana mountains. Gordon is conducting his advance well.

The town of Haugu, near Kohata, is threatened by the enemy. The Belooch tribes have arisen near Wach and crossed the Afghan frontier. The Glazis have made a raid near Quetta, killing six natives.

Prosperity Too Late for this Bank.

FOR CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

TWO STRONG SPEECHES ON THIS SUBJECT LAST NIGHT.

The Arguments Presented with Clearness and Force--The Speakers Draw a Large Crowd.

The coming of Dr. John C. Kilgo into any community in North Carolina is calculated to arouse the interest of the people, and the simple announcement that he is to deliver an address is enough to draw a large crowd of hearers of all sects and conditions. Last night, when he spoke in West Market street Methodist church, was no exception to the rule.

He had been here before to preach and lecture, and this fact only increased the interest our people felt in him. They all wanted to hear Dr. Kilgo, for it is a well known fact that as a pulpit orator or lecturer his peer is not to be found in North Carolina.

Dr. Kilgo was accompanied to Greensboro by Hon. J. H. Southgate, of Durham, president of the board of trustees of Trinity College, who also made a speech last night. Mr. Southgate's physical size is only exceeded by his mental attainments, and he is regarded as one of the soundest thinkers and clearest and most pleasing speakers in the country.

Rev. P. J. Carroway introduced Mr. Southgate, who spoke for about forty minutes to the delight and edification of all.

He discussed the law of growth, saying it is the law of life; we cannot keep from growing. This law of growth is as inexorable as the laws of nature; we cannot stop it if we wished to. Our mental and spiritual growth is of as much importance as our physical growth. A man may have splendid physique, perfect health and all the temporal blessings this world can bestow, and yet if this is all, there is something lacking in that man's make-up. His soul cries out for something deeper and something more far-reaching--something that this world does not give. There is a day and an hour in the life of man when his soul longs for something that all the wealth and science of this world cannot satisfy--something that springs only from divine origin. This appetite must be satisfied, else the spiritual nature of man perisheth.

The speaker made a pretty illustration in regard to culture. He said the idea we sometimes have of culture is the unfolding of a flower, which blooms and gives out its fragrance for a few hours and then droops, withers away and dies. The true idea of culture might be compared to the tender, clinging ivy which entwines itself around the rugged trunk of the sturdy oak, holding on to and growing by something stronger than itself. There is nothing in this world by which we can grow. If we grow and develop as we are designed to in the mind of God we must cling to something stronger than self and grow by it. And that something cannot be found in this world.

Mr. Southgate then discussed the relation of the State to Christianity. He argued that there is no such thing as a Christian State, that this is not a Christian country. In evidence of this he cited the fact that we speak of our interest in education and point with pride to our 160,000 school houses, while 240,000 saloons are flourishing in the land!

Mr. Southgate's address would have made a splendid sermon for any of our preachers and we regret our inability to give it in full.

After Mr. Southgate had concluded, Dr. Kilgo was introduced to the audience. He spoke one hour and ten minutes on "Christian Education," making a strong speech all the way through. Probably some were present who did not agree with him in everything he said, yet it cannot be denied that the arguments he made in behalf of this great question were strong and convincing.

He started out by saying the church he represented (the Methodist) has a record for education that was born with the church; at the first conference held by John Wesley plans were laid for the establishment of a college.

Dr. Kilgo said he has great hopes for this government when he remembers that three-fourths of the colleges in this country are in the hands of the church, and that a vast majority of the intelligence of the land is the product of the churches.

Christian education is not a dream of the visionary man. There is as truly a realm for Christian colleges as for Christian Sunday schools, or for anything that is Christian, and they have the same security. If there is no necessity for the Christian teacher there is no necessity for the Christian Sunday school, and putting a Christian man at the head of an educational institution does not make a Christian college.

There is just as much difference between Christian education and ordinary education as between a Christian man and an ordinary man. Some say that Christian education is nothing more than moral education. This is denied, for there is a vast difference between the gospel and rectitude. Morality knows no God, while piety rests upon God.

He held that what we have or may hope to have is the outcome of religion. The church has redeemed womanhood. Look at the women of lands that have not been enlightened by the gospel of Christ. What is the condition of the women of China, India, Africa, and other heathen lands? In Christian lands they have been brought out of abject slavery by the liberty of the gospel.

There was one idea advanced by Dr. Kilgo that is in opposition to the idea of most people here. He says the doctrine of ignorance being the cause of vice is a mistaken one. Ignorance was never the cause of crime and education will never be its cure. Illiteracy never overthrew any country. It is the sharp, shrewd, educated mind of the demagogue that we should fear. Meanness--that same old meanness with which the world has always been cursed--is still the cause of crime, and the blood of Jesus Christ is the only cure.

Dr. Kilgo said many more interesting things, but it is impossible, with our limited space, to give anything like a full or accurate report of his address. No allusion was made to any of our state institutions.

BOB NEWLIN FOUND GUILTY

THE NEGRO BOMB THROWER AND WOULD-BE ASSASSIN

Is Awaiting the Decision of Judge Adams--Attorneys Will Ask for a New Trial for the Prisoner.

Quite a good deal of interest was manifested in the Bob Newlin case, the court room being crowded during the entire progress of the trial.

The evidence, as given in yesterday's TELEGRAM, was all against Bob, and though he had able counsel to defend him, it did not take the jury long to render a verdict of guilty.

The judge has not yet passed sentence upon Newlin. We understand Bob's attorneys will move for a new trial.

There is a difference of opinion as to Bob's guilt, many thinking that if he hauled the bomb-throwers in his carriage he did it ignorantly. Others think he knew of the plot and was an accomplice.

Possibly Newlin's reputation, which is not the best, had a good deal to do with his conviction, and it was doubtless on account of his reputation that he was not put upon the witness stand.

Much Criticism.

We have heard some pretty sharp criticism from the "man in the street" on several cases that have come up at this term of court. Possibly they were only exercising the immemorial privilege of kicking, but they seemed to think that, in some instances, justice had gone wide of the mark.
